

PIZZA BOXES - To Recycle or Not

JULY 6, 2010 - 9:19 AM

A common question that conscientious recyclers ask is whether or not pizza boxes are recyclable. They are, in and of themselves, recyclable. They are made of corrugated cardboard and can be easily recycled with other cardboard or mixed paper. The problem is their contents. In reality, most pizza boxes are not recyclable because of the grease and cheese left on the boxes.
