

Quasi-judicial procedures in other Alaskan communities

Communities (Interviews took place in Nov 2015, except Homer, 4/17/19)	Do you limit who can testify at QJ hearings?	Do you accept written comment in QJ matters?	Is Planning staff considered a party in QJ hearings?	Do you administer an oath to require truthfulness?	Do you conduct cross-examination by the applicant, staff and/or the public?
Anchorage Erika McConnell 343-7917	No	Yes	No	No	There are provisions for various parties to ask questions of other parties through the chair.
Kenai Peninsula Borough Max Best, director 714-2200	No	Yes	No	No	Director as ex officio member and PC can ask questions of the testifier to clarify. Allowed to testify again if they have something new to add.
Ketchikan Brittany Hathaway 228-6631	No	Yes	No	No	In the event that testimony in opposition to the request is provided, the Chair shall provide the applicant an opportunity to rebut.
Mat-Su Eileen Probasco 861-8501	No	Yes	Yes, in that they prepare the staff report and present the facts.	No	No
Soldotna Stephanie Queen 714-1240	No	Yes	Staff has a neutral, fact-finding position.	No	No
Kodiak Bob Pedersen	No	Yes	No	No	No
Unalaska Anthony Grande 581-3100	No	Yes	No	No	No
Juneau Beth McKibben 586-0465	No	Yes	Not sure	No	No
Homer Julie Engebretsen 235 3106	No	Yes	No	No	No. Applicant and staff may rebut public testimony. Limited on appeal

FNSB

YES

NO

YES

YES

CROSS EXAMINATION

~~HOMER~~

~~NO~~